

we listen to Air 1 everyday. I believe that the moral values Air one teaches are a huge asset to myself, my family and our community. Without stations like Air 1 I believe our community would suffer greatly. Our children need to have an alternative to secular music. With teachings of moral values rather than popularity. Thank you for your time. Julie Garmon